Terrible Disaster at Sea—Floods in City, Plain and Canon—The Kansas Cyclone
—A Wisconsin Town Fire-Swept —A Big Death Roll.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The steamer City of Rome, of the Anchor line, reached here Thursday, having on board, besides her 1,821 regular passengers, two French fishermen, the only survivors of the crew of the French fishing bark George Jeanne, which was sunk by the City of Rome in a collision on the banks of Newfoundland on May 25. The ill-fated vessel, after she was struck, sank in less than a minute, carrying down with her twenty-four men, only two of whom were saved. Capt. R. D. Munro, of the City of Rome, was too much broken up by the remembrance of the scene to give more than a brief statement. On the day of the disaster the weather was so thick that from the bow of the boat it was difficult to see 100 feet ahead. A great many icebergs were passed; between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. fifty-eight were counted, large and small. The captain asserts that bells were rung and whistles sounded continuously. At 4:30, when the fog was thickest, the men forward saw the spars and masts of a bark appear in the mist barely twenty feet away. The bark lay at anchor, and, according to the captain's story, was not ringing its bell or keeping a lookout. The signals to reverse the engines were given, but it was too late, and the steamer's iron bow cut through the George Jeanne with as little resistance as if she had been a piece of cheese. In less than a minute the bark went out of sight.

The steerage passengers who landed from the City of Rome at Castle Garden declared with one accord that the steamer was making at least fourteen knots an hour when the collision occurred. Charles Morgan, a steerage passenger, declared that the officers on the bridge were watching the passengers leaping and jumping, and were not keeping a proper lookout. The official log of the steamer states that on Monday the steamer made 408 miles. A memorial was presented to Capt. Munro, signed by the cabin passengers, praising his efforts to save the survivors.

Drowned in the Canyon.

INDIANOLA, Neb., May 29.—Tuesday evening a party of seventeen Bohemians, en route to Dundee creek, camped in Richman canyon, a half mile from the Republican river, and nine miles east of here. At dark a heavy rain set in, and about 10 o'clock a waterspout burst a short distance above, flooding the heretofore dry canyon to the depth of fifteen feet. This came down the canyon in waves. The Bohemians were asleep in their wagons. The one nearest the bed of the stream was occupied by John Macek, wife and son; the center one by John Osmer, wife and four children and two other children; the third by Joseph Havelic, wife and three children. When the flood struck the wagons Havelic was the first to arouse. He jumped up, grasped the wagon tongue, and attempted to pull the wagon out of the water. Fresh waves struck it, wresting the tongue from his grasp and carrying the wagon out into the raging flood. Osmer had already jumped from his wagon, and succeeded in getting four children to shore, but before he could return to the wagon it was carried away. The first Macek knew of the situation he was sailing down the stream. Seeing a tree just ahead, he bid his wife and son to cling to him and he would try to save them. He succeeded in clasp the tree, but the sudden stop shook off his wife and son, and they went down in the flood. Macek climbed into the tree, from which he was rescued in the morning. Havelic and Osmer finally found the residence of Simon Jennings, half a mile off, and made known what happened. Up to night but two of the eleven bodies missing had been found.

Freaks of the Frisky Cyclone.

ATCHISON, Kan., May 29.—Additional particulars of the cyclone at Goffs, on Wednesday morning, are obtained from a letter which reached here Thursday afternoon. The appearance of the storm, which approached from the southwest, was grand and awful, and the frightful roar of the whirling, lightning-edged clouds was louder than the combined noise of 100 guns. The path of the storm through the town did not exceed twenty or thirty rods in width, but within that space everything destructible was a wreck.

The injured are as follows: Mrs. Frank Mayer, badly bruised about the head; not fatally hurt. Her child, injured internally, and will probably die. George Cowilla, a farmer living southwest of the town, was standing in front of Hawley's shop as the storm approached, and was lifted up by the whirling wind, carried a distance of thirty yards, and deposited in a door-yard. Flying timbers had broken both his legs, and when found he was insensible. His recovery is scarcely possible.

The appearance of the town after the storm had passed was desolate and forlorn beyond description. The panic-stricken citizens, many of whom had received slight injuries, emerged from cellars and "cyclone holes," into which they had plunged, and set about rescuing the wounded and recovering property, which littered the ground in every direction.

Some strange phenomena were witnessed in connection with the storm. The curb of H. G. Pickett's well was broken off close to the ground and the well itself stuffed full of chickens. A thick mist flying at an awful rate of speed seemed to precede the cyclone, while during its prevalence wind, rain, hail, thunder and lightning, blended into one awful and never-to-be-forgotten scene.

A Cloud-Burst in Southern Indiana.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 29.—A tremendous rainfall visited this city about 3 o'clock

Thursday afternoon. The center of the cloud-burst seemed to be within the territory bounded by Indiana and John streets and Main street and Garfield avenue, and the streets and pavements in that district were covered completely with water reaching a depth of from four to six feet. Cellars were flooded and many first floors of stores and residences in the district mentioned were inundated, causing heaving damage. Street car travel was suspended. The inmates of many private residences, in their efforts to remove perishable articles to a place of safety, were compelled to wade in water waist deep. The Evansville & Terre Haute passenger depot and yards were flooded with water to the depth of six inches. Sewers were badly damaged, and wooden side and crosswalks displaced and carried off. The loss to property will not fall short of $20,000.

A telegram received from Henderson, ten miles below here, on the Kentucky side, says that about 3 o'clock in the afternoon a heavy cloud charged with electricity passed over that city. A bolt of lightning struck the bridge near pier 5, on which a squad of eight men were at work. Zach L. Moore, of Chicago, an employee of the Keystone Bridge company, with Pat Murphy, J. Fitzgerald and G. T. Wood, were shocked. Murphy and Fitzgerald slightly but Moore and Wood very severely and knocked unconscious. No hopes are entertained for their recovery. Mrs. Hannah Manion, an employee at Clegg's hotel, was prostrated at the same time by the same bolt and lies in a critical condition.

Sixteen Lives Lost.

NEW ORLEANS, May 29.—A special to The Times-Democrat from Waco, Tex., says: A heavy rainstorm prevailed in this section Wednesday night and Waco creek, a small stream which flows through the city ran out of its banks, inundating hundreds of residences. Most people deserted their homes and fled to places of safety. T. Dininghoff, with his wife and three small children, remained in the house which was washed away, and the whole family were drowned. Howard Lewis, colored, his wife, sister and three children, living on a small stream east of the city, lost their lives in the same manner. To these eleven victims are to be added five others near the city. The damage to property in Waco is $30,000. The damage to crops in the county is over a quarter of a million. Rain storms have prevailed throughout north and west Texas and the damage to crops and railroads is incalculable.

Almost Ruined by Fire.

MEDFORD, Wis., May 29.—About 3:20 o'clock a. m. fire was discovered in the rear of the Exchange hotel, but it had gained such headway that twenty-six of the principal business houses were soon laid in ashes. The damages are estimated at about $200,000. The insurance is light. Six cars, two loaded with lumber, were also burned.

At 11:35 o'clock a. m. a fire-engine arrived here from Stevens Point. It is still at work extinguishing the fire in the sawdust and slab-piles.

J. K. Parishe was injured by having his face and hands burned, but not seriously. His hip was dislocated by the falling walls of Poquette's opera hall. Physicians set his hip, and he is resting easily, without anticipating any danger. Mr. Parishe lost his law library.

A Furniture Establishment Destroyed.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 29.—The large furniture warehouse of Henry Vehmeyer at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets, was set on fire about 6 o'clock Thursday evening by an explosion of a can of benzine which Henry Vehmeyer, Jr., was using to kill moths. The walls on the Market and Second streets sides were blown out. Young Vehmeyer was badly burned, but will recover. Mary Cathcart, of Palmyra, N. Y., who was passing the building at the time of the explosion, was struck by the falling walls and had her skull fractured and her right arm torn off. She was removed to the Pennsylvania hospital, where she died from the effects of her injuries. The loss by fire will amount, $100,000, which is but partially insured. Several adjoining establishments were badly damaged by smoke and water.

Destructive Rain.

VANDALIA, Ills., May 29.—One of the most destructive rains for many years fell Thursday. It began early in the morning and poured down in torrents until about 3 in the afternoon. The bridges and many of the sewers throughout the city are wrecked. It is estimated that from $4,000 to $5,000 will be necessary to put the streets in repair again.

Report That Dumont Is Captured.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 29.—Late Wednesday night Gen. Terry received a dispatch from Fort Assiniboine announcing the capture Wednesday of Gabriel Dumont, the missing lieutenant of Louis Riel, and a companion by the name of Michael Dumais. The capture was made by Sergt. Perkins and a private on the Milk River trail, some twenty or thirty miles north of the fort. In reply to the question what disposition should be made of the prisoners, Gen. Terry telegraphed that they should be held until further orders. He is in communication with division headquarters for instructions.

Baltimore & Ohio Right of Way.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—The joint committee on railroads of the city council met Thursday afternoon to consider the ordinance granting the Baltimore & Ohio railroad the right of entrance into this city. Various petitions, favorable and otherwise to the passage of the ordinance, were read, after which Mr. Cowan, general solicitor of the Baltimore & Ohio, was granted permission to speak in behalf of that corporation. At the hour of adjournment Mr. Cowan had not finished his argument, and the committee adjourned to meet again on Friday afternoon of next week, when Mr. Cowan will conclude his argument.

Agreed Upon a Frontier.

LONDON, May 29.—Germany and England have agreed upon the frontier of their New Guinea possessions.

PARTISAN OFFICIALS.

ALLEGED ACTION OF THE SENATE ON THE SUBJECT.

A Copiah County Man Asked to Step Down—Latest List of Lucky Aspirants—Notes of Interest from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—The Critic publishes, with a sensational display of italics and capitals, the following resolutions, which it says it is credibly informed were adopted last March at a caucus of Republican senators:

1. That in case of the removal of any efficient Republican public officer on the alleged ground of offensive partisanship, and the nomination of a Democratic partisan in his place, such nomination will not be confirmed.

2. That in case any Democratic partisan causes the removal of an efficient Republican and receives as his reward for causing such removal the nomination as successor to the decapitated official, such nomination will not be confirmed.

Two or three Republican senators who were asked about these resolutions refused to make any statement, but the facts so far as they can be got at by circumstantial evidence are that formal resolutions like the preceding were never adopted, but that the substance of the alleged resolutions expresses the sentiment of most if not all the Republican senators. The substance of the resolutions is that if a Democrat who has been active in politics is nominated to succeed a Republican who is removed for no reason except his participation in politics, the nomination will not be confirmed. This expresses the sentiment of pretty much all the Republicans in the senate.

What Might Have Been for Mosby.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—A private letter received in this city from Consul John S. Mosby, at Hong Kong, says that at the commencement of the recent troubles between China and France he was offered the command of the Chinese army with the privilege of employing, as officers, 300 ex-confederates. After stating that he had declined the proposition, Col. Mosby adds:

I could not be a mere mercenary soldier of fortune. I could not fight for money or from anything less than patriotic motives. If it had been made public during the contest that China had made this offer to me it would have discredited her and been regarded as a confession of weakness. As they had paid me this high compliment, which I could not help, I would not do anything to injure them. There was certainly millions in it. I might have played the part of Tamerlane or Genghis Khan, or founded a greater empire than that of the moguls.

Bulldozers Needn't Apply.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Postmaster General Vilas has requested the resignation of J. L. Meade, recently appointed, postmaster at Hazelhurst, Copiah county, Miss. Mr. Meade was appointed upon the recommendation of Congressman Barksdale, representing the congressional district of which Copiah county forms a part. Mr. Meade, it is alleged, was concerned in what are known as the "Copiah outrages," and was implicated in the murder of Postmaster Matthews, a Republican, about two years ago. It is stated at the postoffice department that the appointment was made without the full knowledge of all these facts. Hence the request for his resignation.

If There's To Be a Sweep.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—There is a report that the railway postal clerks in the northwest who are confident that they will not be permanently retained in the service contemplate resigning in a body. There could, of course, be no greater calamity to the postal service than such an action. It would cause inextricable confusion, and it is difficult to see how the department could extricate itself from the trouble with inexperienced clerks. The report, so far as it has been possible to learn, is either unfounded or premature.

Generous But a Lunatic.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—An old soldier, Ben Snyder, who was reported to have surprised the commissioner of pensions several days ago by renouncing his pension of $72 per month because he had regained his health, now turns out to be an insane man. He had been granted a pension because of insanity resulting from hardships and wounds. His pension consequently will not be taken from him, but it will probably be reduced, as he is now able to go about alone and is not totally disabled.

Alleged Violation of Civil Service Rules.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—The appointment of Robert Hunter, of Winchester, Va., as chief of the division of accounts in the general land office, is spoken of here as a violation of the civil service law. It is claimed that the position is that of a fourth-class clerk, designated by the secretary of the interior to perform the duties of chief of a division, a position which the law making appropriations for the clerical force of the land office does not mention.

Late Appointments to Office.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Thursday the president made the following appointments: Postmasters—William Steiner, Oak Park, Ills.; Andrew Bards, Sparta, Ills.; Enoch A. McLeod, Palmyra, Mo.; Sanford L. Sturtevant, Fullerton, Neb.; Clement Philbrick, Halstead, Neb.; William M. Martin, Muscogee, I. T.; R. E. Laurensen, Junction City, Kan. Collectors of internal revenue—Owen A. Wells, Third district of Wisconsin; John B. Malony, Third district of Michigan.

Don't Think It Expedient.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—There was a full attendance of the cabinet at the meeting Thursday. The question of authorizing a continuance of the World's exposition at New Orleans was again considered. The result is shown in the following telegram, sent by the president to Senator Gibson: The question of reopening the exposition has been considered by the cabinet, and they are unanimously of opinion that there is no warrant of law for it, and that it would be inexpedient on other grounds.

Spoke for Blaine and Logan.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Mr. William G. Webster, of Illinois, who was dismissed from the fourth auditor's office of the treasury department a few days ago, says that Secretary Manning informed him that it was done because he electioneered and made speeches for Blaine and Logan in Illinois during the campaign. Mr. Webster was one of the first appointees in the department under the civil-service law.

Paper for the Treasury.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—The treasury commission on distinctive paper submitted their report to Secretary Manning late Thursday afternoon. The committee are unanimously in favor of dispensing with the distributed silk fibre in the paper.

A Looked-for Appointment.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—It is stated upon authority of prominent Pennsylvania Democrats, that ex-Mayor Fox, of Philadelphia, will, in a few days, be appointed director of the mint at that city.

Base Ball.

CINCINNATI, May 29.—An exhibition game was played on Thursday afternoon by the Cincinnati Americans and a picked nine, for the benefit of the sufferers of the Sixth street fire. The amount realized was $201.92. The score was 5 to 1 in favor of Cincinnati. Other association games were: At Indianapolis—Omaha 3, Indianapolis 12; at Washington City—National 3, Baltimore 2—exhibition game; at Louisville—Metropolitans 4, Louisville 8. League games: At Providence—Detroit 5, Providence 11; at Boston—Chicago 3, Boston 4; at New York—Buffalo 0, New York 11; at Philadelphia—St. Louis 0, Philadelphia 4.

Burke Polished Him Off.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 29.—The four-round hard-glove contest in Market hall Thursday night, between Professor John S. Barnes, of this city, and Jack Burke, the Irish lad of Chicago, was decided in favor of the latter. In the first two rounds Burke punished Barnes severely, and at the end of the second had about used him up, when the police interfered. It was the general opinion that Burke would have put the professor to sleep in the third round. The receipts, $300, were given to Burke.

Faulkner Dislocates Christol's Shoulder.

CHICAGO, May 29.—A private wrestling match was given in a well-known sporting resort here Thursday night. The contestants were William Faulkner and Andre Christol. The match was best two in three, for a purse of $150. Christol won the first fall, catch-as-catch-can, and Faulkner the second, Graco-Roman. In the third, catch-as-catch-can, Christol's shoulder was dislocated and the match was declared in favor of Faulkner.

THE MUCH-TRIED DOLPHIN.

She Stands the Fourth Test Nobly—Her Next Trip.

NEW YORK, May 29.—To John Roach's great delight his fourth attempt to show that the new dispatch boat Dolphin can run for six consecutive hours without breaking down was not a failure. The fourth trial was made Thursday. The Dolphin ran up the sound for about three hours without accident and then turned and came back to the city at full speed, making the required six hours' run. It was said by some of those on the trip that it was so devoid of incident as to be almost monotonous. The machinery worked smoothly and much better than on any of her previous trips. Whether or not the engine developed the required 2,300 horse-power and kept it up for the whole six hours will not be known until the experts have figured up the data taken during the trip. During the trial the Dolphin ran at one time at the rate of sixteen knots an hour and kept it up for nearly a half hour. Her speed varied from that to fifteen knots an hour. If the board reports that the Dolphin met contract requirements the next event in the Dolphin's career will be a trial trip at sea loaded. On this test she will be required to make only twelve knots an hour, and the cost of the trial will be borne by the government.

High License in Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 29.—In the house Thursday the high license bill was amended so as to provide for licenses ranging from $250 in cities of the first and second classes to $50 in boroughs of less than 5,000 inhabitants. The bill was then ordered transcribed for third reading.

Emperor William Better.

BERLIN, May 29.—The emperor William was much better Thursday night.

will not join the San Carlos Apaches, but on the contrary have tendered Maj. Sanborn, commanding Fort Stanton, N. M. 150 recruits, should the degrading Apaches come near the garrison. It appears that the outbreak was caused by whisky. The Indians manufactured large quantities of "Tiswin," and became intoxicated. Knowing that punishment would follow this infraction of the rules, they abandoned the reservation and went on the warpath.

FORT STANTON, N. M., May 29.—Two of Geronimo's squaws, captured by the Indian police, arrived here Thursday. One of them wore five gold rings, evidently taken from victims. The squaws tore their hair and wildly lamented their fate.

SILVER CITY, N. M., May 29.—The Apaches are making bloody trails through this section. It is now thought that three or four different bands are degrading and murdering in as many sections of territory. The hostiles are thought to number about 300. Four chiefs are with them—Geronimo, Nana, Naetcha, and Chihuahua. Thursday morning the five dead bodies of a Mexican family, killed about five miles west of here, were brought in and buried.

Two couriers are missing. Three additional prospectors have been killed on the south fork of the Whitewater—one named Joe Bunting, on Magellan creek. He made a brave fight, and killed two Indians, one a chief. The fight was witnessed by Bunting's partner, who was just coming into camp. He succeeded in killing two before getting away. Thursday morning George's ranch, two miles from Fort Bayard, was attacked, and an American was wounded. The Indians are heading for the Black range. They have been sighted in Stein's pass. It is believed that they will attempt to go through the pass. Should they do so two companies of cavalry in the immediate vicinity will intercept them.

Gen. Crook has telegraphed that he has enough troops.

Communists Threaten Dire Things.
PARIS, May 29.—The funeral of Victor Hugo will take place Monday morning. The Communists in their several meetings held Wednesday evening adopted resolutions declaring that it is their purpose to carry red flags in the funeral procession. The resolutions also warned the government not to interfere with the Communists in their determination to bear their flags and banners in the great procession. Sarah Bernhardt has asked permission for herself and company to join in the procession.

A Desperado's Latest Effort.
PIKEVILLE, Ky., May 29.—Intelligence has just been received that another chapter has been added to the already bloody records of the Pike county vendetta by the notorious Henry Vanover. James Roberts was riding quietly along at the head of Elkhorn creek, when he was fired upon from an ambush by Vanover, who was lying in wait. Roberts was shot in the head and killed instantly. Vanover is still at large.

The Interest To Be Paid by Drexel & Co.
PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Drexel & Co., bankers of this city, will pay the interest on the 7 per cent. consolidated mortgage bonds of the Reading Railroad company maturing June 1. The interest will amount to $617,000 which, with a similar advance last September, will make the total indebtedness of the company to the banking firm $1,234,000.

Deadly Epidemic in Ohio.
STUEBENVILLE, Ohio, May 29.—A child of A. C. Truax, the fifteenth victim from the epidemic prevailing at Paris Roads, is dead. Mr. Truax himself is very ill. Lida Gardner, the stepdaughter of Mr. Truax, is very low and not expected to live over night. William Gardner was stricken with the disease Wednesday and is rapidly sinking. The theory now is that the first child of Kennedy Truax that took the disease contracted it by drinking from a watering trough from which horses, affected with glanders, had drunk. Dr. Polk, of New York, thinks the disease is the same that scourged the mountain regions of West Virginia and Kentucky three years ago.

Legislation in Illinois.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—The senate made a record for itself Thursday by dispatching business with great rapidity, taking up and disposing of appropriation bills of the gross amount of $2,250,000, besides transacting a great deal of other business. A resolution was passed providing for adjournment June 16. Ten thousand dollars was appropriated for the work of suppressing stock diseases. In the house the low-license bill came up again and action on it was prevented by its friends breaking the quorum. The bill appropriating $120,000 for repairs to Chester penitentiary was passed, as was a similar appropriation for the Feeble-Minded institute.

The New Orleans Exposition.
NEW ORLEANS, May 29.—The action of the cabinet relative to the exposition in refusing to approve its continuance and declining to allow the government exhibits to remain here, caused much despondency and bitterness. The money had been raised for the purpose and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. A committee of citizens will leave for Washington to endeavor to secure a reversal of the cabinet's action. If they fail an attempt will be made to hold the exposition open without the government exhibits.

The Virginia Election.
NORFOLK, Va., May 29.—In the election here Thursday for city treasurer, W. W. Hunter (Dem.) was elected by a majority of 335 votes. Last November the city went Republican by 490 majority.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 29.—Joseph W. Couch (Rep.) was elected city treasurer by 1,200 majority.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 29.—The entire Democratic ticket was elected.

Gladstone Thanks the American Press.
MONTREAL, May 29.—A newspaper man here a short time ago forwarded a clipping to Mr. Gladstone containing comments of the leading American journals on his great speech of the 27th ult. on the war credit vote. An acknowledgment has been received from the English prime minister returning thanks for the extracts, and remarking: "I much value these kind expressions from the United States, as I have always attached, and continue more and more to attach, the greatest value to sympathy and good will between the two countries."

A Missing Man Found.
MARQUETTE, Mich., May 29.—Charles F. Gay, the missing auditor of the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon railroad, who was missing since Monday, was found dead Thursday morning in the woods, a mile northwest of the city. He had a bullet-hole in his head and a revolver in his hand, and from his position it is believed that death was instantaneous. He committed suicide in a fit of insanity. When found, he had been dead two days at least. A reward of $500 was paid by the citizens for finding the body.

Sad Ending of a Westling Match.
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 29.—Thursday, while Gus Williams and Herman Lenheim were engaged in a friendly wrestling match at Lanterman's Falls, near here, the latter went too near the brink of a deep ravine and fell headlong, making several revolutions to the bottom, a distance of ninety feet. He was found horribly bruised and unconscious. Medical aid is doing all possible to save his life. He tore off Williams' shirt collar in attempting to save himself.

Ten Hours a Day.
LANSING, Mich., May 29.—The legislature has passed a bill making ten hours a legal day's work. It does not apply to farm labor, but to all other kinds, and is mainly directed toward workmen in the lumber regions. The bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and butterine passed the senate.

The Bone of Contention.
LONDON, May 29.—The Standard confirms the statement that the principal point of dispute in the negotiations with Russia at present is the possession of Marutshak. On this point, The Standard says, England refuses to yield.

Might Have Made It Two Years.
[Arkansas Traveler.]
The jury, without leaving the box, said that Mr. Gregg should for one year be confined within the walls of a prison. A look of deep disappointment settled upon Gregg's face.

"We did the best we could for you," said one of the jurymen when the court adjourned.

"No you didn't replied Gregg."

"We couldn't make it any better."

"That's all right," replied Gregg, "but you must have made it more. You must have made it two years instead of one."

"Why, man, do you want to live in prison?"

"Lemme tell you something," said Gregg. "I married old 'Lias Meckford's daughter."

"Well, what of that?"

"What o' that! Look here, you don't know that family. Of course I want to go to prison. Well, it's only one year, but drive on. I'll do the best I can."

A Woman in a Hurry.
[San Francisco Chronicle.]
Did you ever notice a woman in a hurry. She goes along decorously for a little time. Suddenly she makes a spurt, runs about twenty yards, slows down panting, and if you watch the man walking leisurely on the other side of the street, you will find he'll get to the corner of the block before she does and she is out of breath at that.

Blanket Weavers on a Strike.
PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Two hundred blanket weavers in the employ of John and James Dobson, at the falls of Schuylkill, who recently returned to work at the old rate of wages in order to fulfill a government contract, are again on a strike. On Tuesday last they demanded an increase of 15 per cent. The Messrs. Dobson refused to grant the increase and the men quit work. They are determined not to return until the increase is granted.

Hugo's Funeral Procession.
PARIS, May 29.—Victor Hugo's funeral procession will avoid passing through the Grand boulevard. It will traverse the Place de la Concorde and the boulevards St. Germain and St. Michael.

SEALS AND WAX.

THE REVIVAL OF AN OLD FASHION AND WHAT IT LEADS TO.

The Kind of Seals Most in Demand—Selection of Designs by Purchasers—
Some Funny Happenings—Significance of Sealing-Wax.

[Philadelphia Times.]

"A lively trade in the manufacture of seals has recently been developed," said a prominent stationer. "A complete outfit, such as has been made and offered for sale for two or three months past by local dealers, consists of a silver tray, oxydized or polished, of unique designs, hammered or plain, with a match box to fit, a little bundle of adamantine tapers two and a half inches in length, half a dozen sticks of the wax in as many hues and colors, and a pretty box to hold them and the little silver spirit lamp which liquifies the sealing material. The seal is not included, except in certain complicated bronze or silver pattern, such as lizard or alligator designs. If the material is solid silver the outfit is worth all the way from $20 to $50. A very fashionable and equally ugly plated sort can be purchased for $15. Lately, to meet the demand which has spread to the less fashionable portions of society, a cheap outfit, costing but 75 cents, has been made, consisting of a neat pasteboard box containing the same articles.

"The seal most in use is a German text initial placed upon a plain field and enclosed in plain concentric circles or surrounded by a cross-cross tinting. Some ladies exceedingly Democratic in their notions use an English initial. Others have two or three letter monograms. Crests are very fashionable. Mottoes surmounted by the armorial crest of the family are correct in taste and more extensively ordered now than six months ago. After the circle the shield is the outline most frequently called for. The dealers are often asked to select designs for purchasers. A lady who boasts of a great pedigree recently asked a Chestnut street clerk to assist her. Picking up Burke's 'Heraldry' he turned to the given name and showed his customer a coat-of-arms which he thought fitted her ancestry. Looking at it an instant she said:

"I like that real well, I believe I'll order one. But can't you put an alligator or easel or something that's all the rage now into that vacant space in the corner of the shield? It would help to fill up, you know?" "This," continued the stationer, "is a sample of the mushroom element idea of armorial sealing. A lady said recently, in ordering a costly seal:

"I don't care much what it is, so that it is good-sized and more stylish than Mrs. B's."

"The design was which given her was fearfully and wonderfully made. American flags, bald-headed eagles and all the wild animals to be found in the Zoo were chucked in promiscuously and conspicuously. The effect was shoddy and satisfactory, but it looked like a circus poster. There are about twenty different perfumes and colors in wax, and as many as a dozen shades of red, from the deepest Indian red to a bright scarlet."

"Is there any significance in the color employed to seal the letter?"

"There is. Flirtations in sealing wax are the latest racket. The ordinary red wax signifies business and is supposed to be used only for business letters. Black is, of course, used for mourning and condolence. Blue means love and as we make four or five tints of this color each stage of the tender passion can be accurately portrayed. When pink is used congratulation is intended. An invitation to a wedding or other festivity is sealed with white wax. Variegated colors are supposed to show conflicting emotions. Do you know that thimbles are being utilized to bear seals? Fact. The designs of that sort are mild just now, but are developing. We'll work the idea up and think it will become fashionable.

"The odors used in the wax are ravishing in their delicacy—that is the expensive sort. The cheaper grades are as bad as the pomatum of a 5-cent barber shop. The perfume is the element of cost in the wax. A Paris firm makes the finest imported article. The perfume of the burning wax fills an ordinary sized apartment and lingers about the envelope for hours."

Advance in Perfumery.
[Brooklyn Eagle.]

There are a score of scents which we know nothing about. The geranium may, perhaps be familiar; it is expressed from the leaves and the stalk; but what do the public know of the extract of cedar? We know that the cedar is an odoriferous wood, but the perfume has only lately been known, it having been made for the first time within these few years from the refuse shavings of the pencil makers. What, again, do we know of the essence of cucumbers? That this salad has delicate smell, with which many a happy picnic is associated, we all of us know, but of late years the perfumer has found a use for it for the nose as well as the mouth. Fennel is not a substance from which we should expect to find an odor extracted, but the oil is used to scent soap, we find, for those who like it.

There are numbers of the chemically built up essences now produced, and not only the perfumer but the confectioner is adding to his stock of tastes and perfumes by reason of the labors of the chemist. There is no knowing what art may not do hereafter, now that our chemists are becoming so smart. Possibly in a dozen years time flowers will be deposited from the laboratory of the perfumer and by the magic art of chemistry the most disgusting odors will be transformed into the most delightful perfumes.

Quieted the Bully.
[Heidelberg Zeitung.]

The bullying manner of the German students is proverbial, as is also their mania for dueling. It was at Heidelberg that a quiet citizen leaving the cars said to a swaggering student.

"Sir, you are crowding me! Keep back a little bit, sir!"

The student turned fiercely, and said, in a loud tone, "Do you not like it? Well, sir, I am at your service whenever you please!"

"Oh, thank you!" said the traveler. "Your offer is very kind, and you may carry my value to the hotel for me."

The student fled amidst shouts of laughter.

APPROACHING VENICE.

What a Traveler Is Reminded of—A Sight
Most Disappointing.
[Cor. Detroit Free Press.]

Venice is not a great railroad center. I think there is but one iron road leading there. The train stops at a little wayside station that reminded me of the wild, uncivilized stations of western America. It is hard to believe that you are within a couple of miles of Venice. Here there is a dreary wait while the Italians, with the calm, unruffled methodicalness of a people with several thousand years of leisure behind them and the same length of time ahead, collect the tickets.

A railroad ticket is a continual surprise to an Italian railroad official. It has always a pleasing novelty for him. He reads both sides with care and interest. He never punches it. His respect for it is too great. Occasionally you have to stop off at big stations and take in the ticket to the chief official, who regards it affectionately, stamps it with care and sometimes writes his autograph on it. A person, traveling through Italy thus collects all the autographs of the principal men on the road. When the tickets are collected the train moves slowly on and comes to an apparently interminable embankment with the shallow reedy salt water on each side.

Away to the left appears Venice. The sight is most disappointing. It reminds me of the classic regions of Saginaw or Bay City, the New Jersey marshes or the low land below London. To the right are seen gondolas seemingly waterlogged, being propelled towards the city. I thought that some unwise gondoliers had rashly ventured away from the canals and had got their boats filled. The fact was that these were the water works of Venice. They go out to where a river tumbles over a dam, and shove their boats underneath the waterfall. Then they work their way back and empty the water in the locked walls of Venice—land-locked and pallocked. After a run of a mile or so the train enters the dark station. A person feels sold and oppressed. The place is as romantic as a Chicago freight shed. One feels like taking the next train back. He is ready and willing to write down the famous Queen of the Sea as a swindle.

China, it is said, will reorganize her military system, as Japan has already done.

Procession will be formed by Post Commander, C. W. Dey, on Galena street at 1:45 p. m. sharp, and under direction of Comrade H. T. Noble, Marshal of the Day. March to the Court House Square in the following order:

Brass Band, Battalion of Soldiers, Floral Committee, School Children, College Faculty and Students, Dixon Fire Companies.

Order of Exercises.

Commandery A. F. and A. M., K. T., I. O. O. F., A. O. U. W., S. K., and others. Organ, Chorus, Clergy and City Council in carriages—Citizens.

EXERCISES AT THE COURT HOUSE.
Vocal Music—Kellar's Hymn; Prayer by Rev. L. M. Andrews, Chaplain of the Post; Oration by Col. E. R. Roe. Music—Band and Vocal. Reading of Poem by Master Dana Johnson—"Farago's Bay Fight," Motion with reform.

On conclusion of the exercises the procession will reform in the same order as before and march to Oak Wood Cemetery, where prayer will be offered by Comrade W. A. A. Lippe, and the soldier's graves decorated with flowers, under the direction of Comrades J. D. Crabtree, T. A. Conlee and Edwin A. Snow. Benediction; after which the procession will reform.

THE BEST EQUIPPED RAILROAD IN THE WORLD.

Let it be forever remembered that the Chicago & North-Western RAILWAY

Is the best and shortest route to and from Chicago and Council Bluffs (Omaha), and that it is preferred by all well posted travelers when passing to or from

CALIFORNIA AND COLORADO

It also operates the best route and the shortest line between

CHICAGO and St. PAUL and MINNEAPOLIS

Milwaukee, La Crosse, Sparta, Madison,
Fort Howard (Green Bay), Wis., Winona, Owatonna, Mankato, Minn., Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Webster City, Algona,
Clinton, Marshalltown, Iowa, Freeport,
Elgin, Rockford, Ill., are amongst its 800
local stations on its lines.

Among a few of the numerous points of superiority enjoyed by the patrons of this road, are its DAY COACHES which are the finest that human art and ingenuity can create its PALATIAL SLEEPING CARS, which are models of comfort and elegance; its PALACE DRAWING ROOM CARS, which are unsurpassed by any; and its widely celebrated

North-Western Dining Cars
the like of which are not run by any other road anywhere. In short, it is asserted that it is THE BEST EQUIPPED ROAD
IN THE WORLD.

All points of interest North, Northwest and West of Chicago, business centres, summer resorts and noted hunting and fishing grounds are accessible by the various branches of this road.

It owns and controls over 5,000 miles of road and has over four hundred passenger conductors constantly caring for its millions of patrons.

A kyour ticket agent for tickets via this route, AND TAKE NONE OTHER. All leading ticket agents sell them. It costs no more to travel on this route, that gives first-class accommodations, than it does to go by the poorly equipped roads.

An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

"Calvert, Texas,

May 3, 1882.

"I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

as a cough remedy.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases.

J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.

- Jas. A. Hawley is in Chicago.

-Miss Barge arrived home this evening.

-Dave Spencer has returned from Beatrice.

-Voters should not forget the election on Monday next.

-P. M. Alexander returned from The Kingdom yesterday.

-Jas. Redding has returned from the west for a few days visit.

-The "D. T." club will no doubt, enjoy themselves this evening.

-The weather does not warm up as the farmer would like to have it.

-Mrs. J. O. Hoff has returned from a visit with her brother in Freeport.

Fred Mulkins, formerly of this city, has bought the bus line of C. G. Bailey, of Oregon.

-Adam Jacob, of Jordan township, west of Palmyra, lost two fingers by being caught in a corn sheller.

-Charles Hawley leaves, to-day, for the south. We hope that prosperity and happiness will be his lot.

-Mrs. Charles Chandler and her mother, Mrs. Stephens, left for Peoria, their former home, this morning.

-John Beebe is announced as among the arrivals at Sterling for the purpose of attending to legal business.

-Charles Hazen and his cousin, Miss Irma Camp, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Camp, arrived this morning from Minnesota.

-An arbor-vitae hedge which was last year placed around the College campus, in West Dixon, was entirely killed by the severe winter.

-Mrs. Carolina Hammerli and her daughter, Lena Diva, are on their way to Switzerland, the childhood home of the former. They are residents of Palmyra.

-Colonel H. T. Noble, Marshal-in-chief to-morrow, on Decoration Day exercises, has appointed as aid for that occasion J. D. Crabtree, Gibb Messer and A. C. Bardwell.

-George Armstrong and wife leave to-morrow for their home in Boston; after a pleasant visit with L. Andrus and George Morris and families. Mr. Armstrong and lady made many warm friends here.

What's in a Name.

How liable we are to misunderstand proper names by telephone was clearly demonstrated yesterday afternoon to the utter disgust of a young man from Sterling. The young man in question was visiting a friend here and had run short of funds and telephoned to his brother for a fresh supply to be sent at once. The brother not recognizing the voice asked who he was speaking to. The answer came over the wire, "Marshall." That was enough; the brother dropped the earphone and boarded the first train for Dixon, fully expectant upon finding his brother languishing in "durance vile" at the city prison. Upon his arrival he immediately hastened to the "cooler," but his brother had not been seen, neither was he known in that locality.

It is hardly necessary to state that the mistake was owing to the close resemblance of the young man's name to the word "Marshall."

-The Franklin Electric Light says that "Such articles as the one published by the Sun must work great injury to the school." Very likely. Still the College has gained a reputation throughout the country which is such, we hope, that the efforts of the Sun can not effect.

-Tramps are prowling about in the vicinity of Prairieville. Ulrich Goken's house was entered while the family were absent and two new suits of clothing, an over-coat and other articles stolen. The tramps helped themselves to all they could eat.

-We are informed that Conductor Jack Wight has resigned and will no longer punch tickets on the Rockford run of the Northwestern. Whether or not the following from the Register has anything to do with the affair we are unable to state: "Conductors on the Northwestern have been under the surveillance of spotters for some weeks lately. Two spies have been making frequent runs to Rockford, it is reported, in the guise of traveling agents for a drug firm and a cigar house."

-A Grand Professional Regatta, open to all the oarsmen of the world, will be held at Moline, Saturday, June 13, in which noted scullers will participate. There will be a canoe race for the championship of the world. Among those who will take part in the races, are Jacob Gaudaur, of St. Louis; George H. Hosmer, of Boston; John McKay, of Halifax, N. S.; Harry Parker, of St. Louis, and John Teemer, of Pittsburg, Penn. Edward Hanlan, now in San Francisco on his return from Australia, will probably be present, as a guest of the Sylvans. The Mississippi Valley Amateur Rowing Association Regatta takes place on July 22 and 23, at the same place.

-The progressive euchre party given by Mrs. A. K. Trusdell, last evening, was somewhat extraordinary on account of the unusual number of tables prepared and organization of several separate teams (if we may be permitted here to use the term) provided for. There were three sets of progressive organizations and three first and three second prizes as well as a prize for the greatest number of successful lasso-hands. The latter prize was captured by Mr. L. Andrus. The first prizes for gentlemen were given to Mrs. Armstrong (who played a gentleman's part) Dr. Wynn and Mr. Chas. Chandler; and the second awards were to Chas. H. Noble, Geo. O. Taylor and F. S. Eberhart.

The Rockford Register, a paper not very favorable to the re-election of Judges Baily, Eustace and Brown, especially the latter, has this to say: "One Charles F. Johnson, of Sterling, a lawyer ambitious of judicial honors, seems determined to try the chance of defeating one of the old judges by making an independent canvass. His hope of course is that a combination of the scattering vote, disaffected for various reasons from the other candidates individually, may be sufficient to give him an election. The intelligent and conscientious voter should be a little wary about giving his suffrage to a gentleman whose qualifications for judicial office are so little known. The mere fact that Mr. Johnson rushes into the field of his own volition is not evidence of fitness and an active canvass and an affable hand-shaking tour through the district would not prove that the substitution of Mr. Johnson in the place of one of the old judges would be a gain. It is rather late in the canvass for a comparatively obscure attorney to prove his qualifications to the voters of the seven counties of the district." At Rockford Mr. Johnson said that he did not expect to defeat Judge Brown. Judge Brown lives in Rockford. At Dixon Mr. Johnson desired to join with Eustace voters. At Rockford, so the Register states, "Mr. Johnson hopes to cut into Judge Eustace's vote, and is really making his fight against him." We fear that the "party by the name of Johnson" is playing double.

-As has been our custom for years we print in this paper a full list of the names of the dead soldiers whose graves will be decorated to-morrow.

-After the New York papers had published the fact that the man who made an effort to leap from the Brooklyn bridge attempted suicide on account of his starving wife and children, the next day nearly five hundred dollars in cash and any amount of ham, beef and groceries were sent to his house as donations. When reading the account of such liberality we are ready to give three cheers for the New Yorkers. People are not as bad as they appear sometimes.

Tried to Wreck a Train.

BUCHANAN, Mich., 29.—John Kinney, aged 16, living four miles from here, Tuesday night placed a link fourteen inches long, weighing fourteen pounds, upon the rail over which the New York express over the Michigan Central railroad would soon pass. Fortunately, however, the obstruction was discovered in time to prevent what might have been a terrible disaster. Kinney was arrested and confessed his guilt, but gave no reason for his devilish work. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court.
